GENERAL ASSEMBLY ENDS SESSION

Recesses Until June 29
to Allow Lowden Time
to Study Bills

REVIEW OF ITS WORK

Administrative Code Measure
First Big Bill To Be Enacted

MAY VETO SOME BILLS

BULLETIN
SPRINGFIELD, ILL., June 17.—The house early today (Sunday) passed the senate bills authorizing cities, if approved by referendum vote, to increase the tax rate for municipal purposes from $1.20 to $2 per thousand assessed valuation. The bills received 82 affirmative votes, 5 above the required constitutional majority. They do not apply to Chicago.

At 2:30 a. m. (Sunday) the house was still in session with the prospect that it would be long after daylight before final adjournment. The senate recessed awaiting the house's finish.

Springfield, Ill., June 16.—The fifth general assembly ended its sessions tonight after six months of work. The assembly recessed until June 29 to allow the governor time to study the bills passed and will return June 29 for adjournment.

The first big bill enacted was the Administrative Code bill. It consolidated more than one hundred minor commissions and boards into nine administrative departments.

Received General Support
The resolution to submit the question of a constitutional convention to the voters was also among the first pieces of legislation. The proposal received general support and was advocated by most of the women organizations of the state. A resolution calling for the special woman's suffrage amendment was defeated, however, soon after the adoption of a call for a general constitutional revision. A maximum woman's work day bill was killed in the house early in the session but later in the session Governor Lowden sent an insistent note to the note that a bill be passed. It was introduced in the senate but its opponents gathered enough votes to defeat it.

The anti-injunction suffered a similar fate. The senate passed a state wide prohibition bill carrying a referendum clause. It was killed in the house.

Boxing Bill Failed
A bill to permit boxing exhibitions was passed by the house. It was voted out by the senate but failed to pass.

A compulsory workmen's compensation law was enacted after an urgent message by the governor.

War legislation took up much thought during the session, the bill of prime importance being the enactment creating the state council of defense. This council suggested much legislation which was passed without opposition by both houses. Those bills included a reserve militia bill to compel all men between sixteen and sixty to engage in some useful occupation during the war. A bill to compel the unregulated solicitation of war relief funds and a bill placing the members of the national guard and naval militia on a straight pay of $1 a day during war service.

Passage Ends Long Fight
Governor Lowden's hardest fight came on the bill to regulate banks. The bill was passed after a long fight. It compels all persons doing a banking business to incorporate and provides a scale of incorporation according to population.

The appropriations for the session, it was figured a week ago would run a little more than $47,000,000. The omnibus bill carrying the funds for the state departments called for about $18,000,000. An ambitious building plan for the University of Illinois was curtailed because of the high prices of labor and material.

A provision for a referendum on a substantial system of good roads was passed. It calls for the construction of about 4,000 miles of hard roads to be paid by a bond issue of $60,000,000. The interest and amortization of the bonds was provided for in a bill doubling the license fees for motor vehicles in the next two years.

Deal With High School Problem.
Two important bills dealt with the high school problem. They provided a substitute for the act of 1911 creating high school districts which was held unconstitutional. The companion bill validates the bonds which were sold to build high schools under the 1911 act. A bill providing a standard of school text books and forbidding a change in systems of text books often than every five years was also passed. A measure forbidding fraternities and secret societies in high schools was vetoed by the governor because of its extreme penalty. A substitute measure to eliminate the fraternities was rushed thru in the last week.

DIRECTS STEPS TO PUNISH RAILROADS

Assembly Passes Resolution in Passenger Fare Case

Resolution Also Directs Utilities Commission not to Grant Any Concessions to Roads Violating
State Law Until Reduce Fares

Springfield, Ill., June 16.—The legislature tonight adopted a resolution directing the attorney general to take immediate steps to punish the railroad companies which have increased the passenger fare in Illinois to 2.4 cents a mile.

Representative Shurtleff ordered the resolution in the house, where it was immediately adopted and sent to the senate for concurrence.

"The railroads have violated the state's laws without reason. They could have complied with the interstate commerce commission decision directing a 2.4 cents fare in some instances without making that rate through the state. They should be brought to understand they cannot show contempt for the state."

The resolution also directs the public utilities commission not to grant any concessions of any sort to the railroads violating the state law until they reduce the fares to two cents a mile.

In a formal statement Attorney General Brundage said he was advised that the interstate commerce commission had declined to postpone the effective date of an order by which Illinois railroads are permitted to increase interstate passenger rates from 2 cents to 2.4 cents a mile and declared he would proceed against the roads next week for violation of the Illinois two cent fare law.

"There should be no misunderstanding about the situation," declares the attorney general. "The interstate commerce commission did not direct the railroads to advance their rates in Illinois. They found that St. Louis was being discriminated against because 2.4 cents per mile was charged on interstate travel to St. Louis from points in Illinois while only 2 cents per mile was charged from the State of Illinois points to East St. Louis."

ROOT ADDRESSES RUSS MINISTERS

Declares U. S. Is Going to Fight "for Your Freedom Equally With Our Own"

SEES RUSSIA AS A WHOLE

Head of American Mission Asserts in Russia America Sees
No Party

QUOTES WILSON'S WORDS

PETROGRAD, June 15.—via London.—"The Russian people consider war inevitable and will continue it. The Russians have no imperialistic wishes. We know that you have none. We shall fight together to secure liberty, freedom and happiness for all the world. I am happy to say that I do not see any moral idea or factor between America and Russia to dissuade us."

"We as people, fighting tyranny and America standing as the oldest democracy hand in hand will show the way of happiness to nations great and small."

Foreign Minister Voices Words
These ringing words expressing the attitude of the Russian government toward America and the American mission headed by Elihu Root were voiced tonight by M. Tereschenko, minister of foreign affairs, responding for the council of ministers to Mr. Root's address of sympathy and good will on the part of the American government.

The American ambassador David R. Francis, presented the Root mission to the ministers in Marinsky palace explaining that the members of the mission had come to Russia to discover how America can best cooperate with its ally in forwarding the fight against the common enemy. The presentation was very informal, only a few Russian officials and the members of the American embassy attending. M. Kerensky, the youthful minister of war, just back from the front, wore the khaki blouse of a common soldier.

The ministers listened with rapt attention to Mr. Root's address which was impressive. M. Tereschenko rose from a sick bed to attend the presentation and responded without notes, expressing great joy in welcoming the commission from America. He said that Russia's revolution was based on the wonderful words uttered by America in 1776. He read part of the Declaration of Independence and exclaimed: "Russia holds with the United States that all men are created free and equal."

Sketches Revolt's History.
M. Tereschenko sketched the history of the Russian revolution briefly, saying that the Russians, enslaved for centuries, threw off all the old order just as the wind blows autumn leaves from the forest. Russia now faces two problems, said the minister, the necessity of creating a strong Democratic force within its boundaries and the fighting of an external foe. Then he declared his confidence in the power of Russia to meet the situation.

Root's Address.
Mr. Root spoke as follows:

"Mr. President and members of the council of ministers:

"The mission for which I have the honor to speak is charged by the government and people of the United States of America with a message to the government and people of Russia. The mission comes from a democratic republic. Its members are commissioned and instructed by a president who holds his high office as chief executive of more than one hundred million free people by virtue of popular election, in which more than eighteen million votes were freely cast and fairly counted pursuant to law, by universal, equal, direct and secret suffrage."

"For one hundred and forty years our people have been struggling with the hard problems of self government. With many shortcomings, many mistakes, many imperfections, we still have maintained order and respect for law, individual freedom and national independence. Under the security of our own laws we have grown in strength and prosperity. But we value our freedom more than wealth. We love liberty and we cherish above all our possessions the ideals for which our fathers fought and suffered and sacrificed that America might be free."

"We believe in the competence of the power of democracy and in our hearts abide faith in the coming of a better world in which the humble and oppressed of all lands may be lifted up by freedom to a heritage of justice and equal opportunity."

News Brought Satisfaction.
The news of Russia's new found freedom brought to America universal satisfaction and joy. From all the land sympathy and hope went out to the new sister in the circle of nations."

Committee of Prominent Citizens
Meets Special Train at Fort Madison.

Burlington, Ia., June 16.—The members of the Italian war mission and party were given a royal welcome in Burlington this afternoon upon their arrival from St. Louis in a special train. There was a program of community and special singing, speeches, review of Company I, Iowa National Guard, now in federal service, review of boy scouts, tour of the city in automobiles, entertainment at dinner at the home of Mrs. C. Marquis Luigi Bonarelli di Riffredo, under-secretary of state for foreign affairs, in a brief address, declared that the mission came here "from the people of Italy to bring salutations to the great American people who make up a nation which is to aid Italy in a righteous cause and cast off bonds of oppression."

The district's maximum allotment was $325,000,000 and the minimum $260,000,000.

Forest Fire Threatens Destruction of Town
LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 16.—A forest fire sweeping the Ojai Valley, about sixty miles from here, threatened the destruction of the town of Ojai tonight. Several persons were reported to have been seriously burned.

The Western Union operator at Ojai reported that the depot was on fire and that he was leaving. Inhabitants of the valley were fleeing. A call for automobiles for rescue work was sent out by Ojai citizens. Rescue parties from Ventura were prevented by the fire from entering the valley.

Relief parties were being sent in by way of Santa Paula.

The fire broke out early today in a canyon north of Ojai, then along a brush covered mountain ridge to a point within two miles of Ojai, where desperate efforts were being made to save the little town.

WILL LIMIT LOAN TO TWO BILLION

M'Adoo States No Part of Oversubscription
Will Be Accepted

TO CUT SUBSCRIPTIONS

Indications are That Total Will
Not Be Available Before
Middle of Week

APPRECIATES WORK

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Secretary McAdoo announced tonight that no part of the great oversubscription to the liberty loan would be accepted and that his statement of May 10 in which he declared that the issue would be limited to $2,000,000,000 stands.

Mr. McAdoo's announcement will result in paring down hundreds of the larger subscriptions until the total reaches the $2,000,000,000 limit. How much will have to be taken from the amount was an unknown quantity tonight. The oversubscription will not fall, it seemed certain below $700,000,000 and may go as high as $900,000,000. Indications are that the grand total will not be available until the middle of next week so great has been the excess.

Mr. McAdoo today acknowledged with appreciation the work of the forces of publicity which aided in the flotation of the loan. When the liberty loan campaign, he said, was essentially one of education and without the generous and patriotic support of the press of the nation, the hope of those in charge that it would be a popular loan would not have been realized. The untiring efforts of the newspapers throughout the campaign were a constant inspiration to the various other groups of workers.

"At a time when news space was at a premium, the liberty loan was featured at length. The foreign press in thirty six languages gave daily proof of the undoubted loyalty of peoples of foreign birth. Every street car carried one or more cards; paper and metal billboards, electric signs, moving picture slides and films, everywhere brought the liberty loan directly and squarely before the people."

"I shall be most grateful to the press if this acknowledgment is given wide publicity."

In addition to the returns received from federal reserve banks a great flood of subscriptions direct to the treasury also was to be compiled. These subscriptions probably will be distributed to their respective reserve districts of their origin, swelling their totals.

Tabulations Not Complete.
St. Louis, Mo., June 16.—Liberty bond tabulations for the eighth federal district totalled $82,500,000 at six o'clock tonight and the governor of the St. Louis district, announced that it might be Tuesday before a complete count could be made.

St. Louis city has subscribed at least $4,000,000, or $17,000,000

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT NOT ABOLISHED.

There will not be a great deal of disappointment in Illinois because of Governor Lowden's veto of the anti-capital punishment bill. The bill as passed by the house and senate provided for the abolishment of the death sentence except in the case of kidnapping and treason. The attorney general held that in such form the proposed law was unconstitutional and it was on this ground that the governor's veto was given. There is not very strong sentiment in the state against capital punishment, neither do the records of the states where capital punishment has been abolished go to prove that there is any lessening of crime.

CHANCES FOR YOUNG MEN.

The honors and attention now being showered upon Gen. Pershing in France have their measure of encouragement for every American lad. "Jack" Pershing rose to his present high position in the army of the U. S. by sheer ability. He was not advanced because he was the son of a prominent member or because he had political influence. The same fact is true of a number of military men and public officials of the other countries at war in that men are taking the most important positions who have "arrived" simply because of their ability and their devotion to the cause of the people.

It is fitting, indeed, that in this great struggle for democracy that those most prominent and influential are of comparatively lowly origin. So they furnish an inspiration to the young men of today and prove that democracy is on a solid foundation.

TEACHING RESPECT FOR LAW.

Illinois has another instance of the high ideals of duty held by the present attorney general, Mr. Brundage. In Brooklyn, a village near East St. Louis, the authorities would do nothing to abate vice conditions which were accounted very bad. The law abiding citizens appealed in vain and then investigation was made by the attorney general's office. As a result the attorney general filed injunctions in his own name against the operation of eight saloons in the village and they have closed. It seems that the town officers are engaged in the saloon business and that conditions had become abominable.

Mr. Brundage has before given evidence that if the state's attorney in any county makes no effort to enforce the law that an appeal to his office will not be in vain. When the attorney general gets thru with the Brooklyn situation there will certainly be a more wholesome regard for the law in that community than previously obtained. Incidentally the attorney general is setting a fine example for prosecuting attorneys.

MILITARY LEADERS

It is recorded in the early days of the Civil war that Ulysses S. Grant sent in from Galena an application to the war department at Washington for a place in the federal army as an officer of field rank. He had graduated from West Point and had seen army service in the Mexican war and later with the Indians in the northwest country. These facts, it is said, were mentioned in the letter sent to the war department but no reply came. It so happened that a little later Grant was appointed by the governor of this state aide-de-camp and subsequently became a colonel of the 21st Illinois volunteers. This bit of history is interesting in connection with a consideration of Grant's subsequent career and the great successes he achieved.

It is not too much to expect that before this war is over the America will develop military specialists who will excel or rank with the army and navy leaders known today. It is not disloyal to say that the situation gives promise of demanding it.

THE PROVIDENCE JOURNAL'S PATRIOTIC WORK.

It is a well known fact that the Providence Journal of Providence, R. I., has in the past two years performed a great service for this country in uncovering German plots against this government. This powerful newspaper was able to accomplish this work because of its control of certain high powered wireless plants and the fact that a number of its own representatives served as hired employees in the German embassy at Washington and in a number of German and Austrian consulate offices thru the country. Just the plan followed of course has not been made public but the revelations thus made have been of inestimable value to the government. This service was performed not for personal aggrandizement but for patriotic reasons, as the editors and owners of the Providence Journal felt they had a duty to perform. Incidentally the paper has been given good advertising at home and abroad, but that advertising is well deserved.

Recently the Journal has issued a booklet entitled "A Few Lines of Recent American History." The booklet contains a chronological record of notable outrages perpetrated in America under the direct leadership of the German ambassador at Washington and his associates, from the beginning of the European war in 1914 up to the date of our entry into the conflict." This little booklet, with its record of events beginning on Jan. 18, 1915 and running to April of 1917, should fall into the hands of every American who has a feeling that the U. S. should not have entered this war. To read the record of these events will stir the heart of every true American and gives proof of the leniency of America's attitude and shows how every possible effort was made to avoid war and still maintain the honor of the U. S.

LEGISLATURE MAKES GOOD RECORD.

The session of the Illinois general assembly which came to a close in the early hours of Sunday morning has been remarkable in a number of ways. The legislature established an excellent record in the beginning by agreeing upon organization without delay. There was no deadlock over the speakership because of agreement previously made and so the legislature got down to business much earlier than the general rule. This same spirit has marked the session thruout and there has been a decided tendency in both senate and house to push legislation along rapidly. So the daily sessions have been longer and the vacation days fewer. Governor Lowden has kept in close touch with the situation and has often appeared before the committees and in a number of instances before joint sessions to advocate the passage of laws favored in the Republican party platform. The governor has not succeeded in every instance in getting the legislation he favored, but his influence has been very strong and if there were any doubters they certainly have been convinced of the executive's sincerity in desire to make good pre-election promises.

The most important piece of legislation passed was the administration bill which created a state department and abolished numerous commissions. The exact benefits to be derived from this change must be shown in the days to come, but a remarkable step toward efficiency in government was taken when this law was placed upon the statute books.

It is well, too, that the legislature has not taken time for adjournment. The conditions are such that the members can be summoned at any time by proper notice in order to take action which may be needed because of developments in the international situation.

THIS YEAR'S FOURTH OF JULY.

The newspapers are now discussing the question of celebrating this year's Fourth of July with an interest heretofore unknown. Here is the St. Louis Globe's suggestion.

"Not necessarily loud, but certainly deep, should be this year's celebration of the Fourth of July. Even should a loud explosion now and then jar the nerves of mollycoddles, who shall say that explosions are inopportune, or out of place, when the nation is at war to maintain, as the president assures us, the very things for which the Declaration of Independence stands, and for which its supporters in 1776, and several subsequent years, fought, bled and died? While we are mounting heavy ordnance and raking cartridges by the million, it might even be called invidious to discriminate against the cannon firecracker on a day consecrated to that liberty for which we are once again fighting.

"At any rate, to be consistent with ourselves and consonant with the nature of things, we should make the observance of the Fourth of July this year one to convince the despotisms of earth that where the seed of liberty was first planted there is now a sturdy growth, and that the sons of freedom are still coming by millions to drink at their old fountains of inspiration. When we speak of old fountains, we mean the old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration, with its processions, its bands of music, its waving flags, its cheering multitudes, its ear-bursting anvil salvos, its reading of the Declaration of Independence and—yes, even this—the old-style Fourth of July orator, to be indulged in all of his old protechnics, for the nonce, with the exception of twisting the British lion's tail. That, of course, may not now be tolerated, seeing that we have made common cause with the lion against a common foe trying to pluck out the lion's whiskers and our own eagle's tail feathers.

"The day should be filled with music and the night with illumination. We should make a celebration of our natal day to be forever memorable as a demonstration of the truth that, when man once finds liberty he can never resign it, and that, when challenged to its defense against actual or threatened aggression, he is not unmindful either of the danger or of the obligation it imposes on him to proclaim again old standards and old ideals which must be forever new so long as autocracy lives to imperil them. The old-fashioned Fourth of July is needed now to expose our continuing devotion to the truths around which we are again rallying. Lining street railway tracks with torpedoes is not of these. But "the rocket's red glare" surely is."

LET'S CHEER UNCLE SAM AND OLD GLORY

When Uncle Sam is needing help, He doesn't plead "Now honey," He simply says, "To lick the whelp Your country'll need some money" And then you ought to see his boys And how they get up and hustle And likewise do his woinen folk Johnnie the nation's bustle. Two billion was the sum he asked, And should he call for billions more He'd get them without trouble. He wants to show that Kaiser Bill That warring's out of fashion, And teach him how to hold his tongue And curb his raging passion. 'Twas Bill that called us coward once Said we were money lovers; But now he'll see we love that bird That o'er us ever hovers. And when he views our shining stars

And boys in khaki breeches, He'll call his men home from the field

And out of all his ditches Good Uncle Sam has now the 'mon, It's ready for him, handy, And what is more he's found the boys Who with the guns are dandy. We're glad we live in U. S. A. A land of world-wide story, So now let's cheer for Uncle Sam, And then for dear Old Glory.

—S. A. Hughes.

Rippling Rhymes By WALT MASON

DISPASSIONATE

I slay the Prussian in his pride, Wind up his ball of yarn; then from his form I take the hide, and nail it to the barn. 'Tis not because I thirst for gore, my heart as hard as bricks, that I slay Prussians by the score, and pile them up in ricks. Ah, no! I'm weeping while I slay, I hate the battle thud; I'd gladly put the sword away, and drain my boots of blood. I pity even while I kill, and send men to the tomb—men representing Kaiser Bill; that's why they meet their doom. For while Kaiser has a throne, and talks of Gott and Me, security will not be known on either land or sea. And peace will be but empty talk, a joke forevermore, till he is perched on some bleak rock, remote from every shore. There is no vengeance in my heart, for freedom still I fight; our ships must sail to every mart, unquestioned, and of right. The starry flag, where'er it flies, must ever honored be, in German as in other eyes, to all eternity. And so my nerves to battle strung, I slaughter with a will; I catch my Prussians while they're young, and slice them up with skill.

PERSHING PLUNGES INTO WAR WORK

PARIS, June 16.—After three days as the guest of France, in which extraordinary honors were bestowed upon him, Major General Pershing today plunged into the work of making preparations for the arrival and disposition of the American military forces which he is to command. Early this morning he walked from his hotel, carrying an armful of documents to the new American army headquarters in the Rue De Constantine, near the hotel Des Invalides. He sat for the first time at the plain table in the barely furnished office and took up the great volume of business which has been accumulating before and since his arrival.

General Pershing motored to the French general headquarters and took lunch with General Petain the French commander in chief whom he had not met before.

WILSON DIRECTS
HOOVER TO PROCEED

Will Organize Food Administration Insofar As It Contemplates Conservation Thru Volunteer Co-operation.

Washington, June 16.—Congress delay in passing the administration food bills drew from President Wilson today an order directing Herbert C. Hoover to proceed immediately with organization of the new food administration insofar as it contemplates conservation thru the co-operation of volunteer forces.

"While it would in many ways be desirable to await complete legislation establishing the food administration, the president wrote, 'it appears that so far as effort can be assembled, we should wait no longer.'"

Plans for enlisting every house wife in the country as a volunteer member of the food administration have been announced by Mr. Hoover. Every woman will be taught to save food in the kitchen and how to purchase for her family. President Wilson's insistence that the food bills be speeded up caused the senate today to put the food control bill next on the calendar and the measure will be taken up Monday when the house also begins debate on the bill.

The measure was reported to the senate today without recommendation.

THINK CONSTANTINE WILL RETURN TO POWER

Berlin Press Regards Abdication Only Temporary

German Papers Appear to Agree that Alexander Will be Only a Nominal
King, if not a Mere Puppet for British, French and Italian Designs

Berlin, June 16.—via London.—While official expressions are not obtainable regarding the situation in Athens the German press is freely speculating as to the further course of events there. The impression prevails that King Constantine did not permanently abdicate, but merely announced that he was leaving Greece with the queen and crown prince as a result of the latest step by the entente powers.

The new king had his military training in Germany. He was considered always keenly interested in military matters and was regarded as a sportsman rather than a diplomat. The German newspapers appear to agree that Alexander will be only a nominal king, if not a mere puppet for British, French and Italian designs.

A well known former Balkan diplomat, in discussing the retirement of Constantine today, told the Associated Press that the entente would long ago have forced the King to abdicate but for the opposition to Venizelos shown by the Russian emperor.

"The French have been the main driving force behind the thumb-screws which the entente has been applying in Greece in an attempt to rehabilitate its shattered prestige in the near east," the former envoy asserted. "The Greek people hope that their Macedonian cry for help would find an echo at least in Washington where it was expected this intrusion on the rights of a sovereign state would meet with a swift rebuke as there the right of small nations to shape their own destinies was being constantly proclaimed.

It is not believed here that Greece will actively enter the war against the central powers it being thought that the entente will be satisfied to make sure of its share of the Thessalian crops.

Miss Cruger's parents identified the body by wearing apparel. The police late today took into custody several persons who were questioned closely.

The bicycle shop to which the girl went to have her skates sharpened the day she disappeared was conducted by Alfredo Cocchi.

of democracies. And the mission is sent to express that feeling.

"The American Democracy sends to the democracy of Russia a greeting of sympathy, friendship, brotherhood, Godspeed.

"Distant America knows little of the special conditions of Russian life which must give form to the government and laws which you are about to create. As we have developed our institutions to serve the needs of our national character and life, so, we assume that you will develop your institutions to serve the needs of Russian character and life.

"As we look across the sea we distinguish no party, no class. We see great Russia as a whole, as one mighty, striving, aspiring democracy. We know the self control, essential kindness, strong common sense, courage and noble idealism of the Russian character.

"We have faith in you all. We pray for God's blessing upon you all. We believe you will solve your problems, that you will maintain your liberty and that our two great nations will march side by side in the triumphant progress of Democracy until the old order everywhere has passed away and the world is free.

One Fearful Danger Threatens

"One fearful danger threatens the liberty of both nations. The armed forces of a military autocracy are at the gates of Russia and the allies. The triumph of German arms will mean the death of liberty in Russia. No enemy is at the gates of America, but America has come to realize that the triumph of German arms means the death of liberty in the world; that we who love liberty and would keep it must fight for it now when the free democracies of the world may be strong in union and not delay until they may be beaten down separately in succession.

"So, America sends another message to Russia—that we are going to fight and have already begun to fight for your freedom equally with our own and we ask you to fight for our freedom equally with ours. We would make your cause ours and our cause yours, and, with a common purpose and mutual helpfulness of a firm alliance, make sure of victory over our common foe. You will recognize your own sentiments and purposes in the words of President Wilson to the American congress when on the second of April last he advised a declaration of war against Germany. He said:

Quotes From Wilson's Speech

"We are accepting this challenge of hostile purpose because we know that in such a government (the German government) following such methods, we can never have a friend, and that in the presence of its organized power always lying in wait to accomplish we know not what purpose, there can be no assured security for the Democratic governments of the world. We are now about to accomplish the gage of battle with this natural foe to liberty, and shall if necessary spend the whole force of the nation to check and nullify its pretensions and its power. We are glad, now that we see the facts with no veil of false pretense about them to fight thus for the ultimate peace of the world and for the liberation of its peoples, the German peoples included; for the rights of nations great and small and the privilege of men everywhere to choose their way of life and of obedience.

"The world must be made safe for Democracy. Its peace must be planted upon the tested foundations of political liberty. We have no selfish ends to serve. We desire no conquest, no dominion. We seek no indemnities for ourselves, no material compensation for the sacrifices we shall freely make. We are but

MISS JOANNA STACY SUMMONED BY DEATH

End Came Peacefully Saturday Morning at Family Home on South Clay Avenue—Funeral Services Monday

Death came to claim one of the city's best known and most highly respected women Saturday morning when Miss Joanna Stacy passed away at the family home, 1106 South Clay avenue. Miss Stacy had shown signs of waning strength for several days, but was still able to be about the house and retired in her usual health Friday evening. She was stricken during the night and it was at 6:30 o'clock that the spirit quietly took its flight.

Joanna Strubling Stacy was born in Jacksonville, the daughter of Matthew and Sarah Kenney Stacy, and her education was received in the schools of the city and at Illinois Woman's college, which school her father helped to found. Since the day of her graduation she has never lost interest in college affairs and among the alumnae of the early classes there have been few more loyal. Matthew Stacy, the father, was one of the city's foremost citizens and the daughter's fond and useful life reflected well the public spirit and broad toleration which characterized the days of the former.

Upon finishing her college course, Miss Stacy became a teacher in the Jacksonville schools and the many pupils who fell within her kindly influence have ever held her name in high regard. As a teacher she was sympathetic and thoughtful and a spirit of helpfulness which never faltered made her a true friend to all. In early youth Miss Stacy made profession of the Christian faith and her whole life has been one of unswerving devotion. She was a member of Brooklyn M. E. church and as long as health permitted was a faithful attendant upon its services.

One sister, Mrs. Hannah Ferguson survives, as do a niece, Mrs. Hester Jerald, and nephew, George Stacy, both of whom were reared at the family homestead. Mrs. Ferguson has since her marriage lived in Kansas City, Mo., and Mrs. Jerald is a resident of Springfield. Four sisters, Hester, Harriet, Margaret and Sarah and two brothers, Thomas and James preceded Miss Stacy in death. Other surviving nieces and nephews are Miss Sallie Stacy, Mrs. Hester Platt, Mrs. Ailina Allen, Mrs. Elizabeth Bealmer, Edwin and William Stacy, Eugene and C. H. Jerald, Matthew, James, Sade M., William, Hattie, Hughes, Frank and Clarence Kenney, and James, Matthew, A. K. and W. D. Stacy, and Mrs. Susie Barrow and Mrs. Katie Hazlett.

The funeral services will be conducted from the family residence Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in charge of the Rev. W. W. Theobald and the Rev. F. B. Madden. Burial will be made in Diamond Grove.

GET FIRST HALF HOLIDAY—Washington, June 16.—Government employees were given their first Saturday half holiday of the season today. About 40,000 employees are affected.

PAN-RUSSIAN CONGRESS HOLDS FIRST MEETING

PETROGRAD, June 16.—The first meeting of the Pan-Russian congress of all councils of workmen's and soldiers' delegates, upon the vote of which depends the immediate destiny of Russia, both in international and domestic questions, was held today.

Councils throughout the empire have sent delegates as have the armies at the front also have sent delegates.

The congress will organize a large number of sections on questions of labor, peasantry, finance, industry, food, nationalities and local government which will draft reports for the consideration of the whole congress. The vital questions are the national attitude toward the war and the relation of the revolutionary democracy to the coalition government.

The attitude toward the provisional government is still more important because a majority vote condemning the government would mean the resignation of the ministers followed, if not by chaos, then by an extreme left cabinet the ability of which to cope with technical administration questions is very doubtful.

PROBE ACTIVITIES OF GERMANS IN JUAREZ

EL PASO, Texas, June 16.—United States government agents are investigating the activities of a German in Juarez who is believed to have an envoy of the German government on a special mission to Mexico City. The man registered at a Juarez hotel under the name of Fritz Hinh, of "Bumenhaven, Germany." He declared he had come from New London, Conn., to El Paso, having made the trip from Germany on the last cruise of the Deutschland. He conferred with the German vice-consul in Juarez and left for Chihuahua City.

The German was given banquets by the German colony and consuls at Chihuahua City, Torreon, Saltillo, Monterey and was met at the station in Mexico City by the German minister, according to reports received by the secret service.

ACCOUNT FOR CREW—Washington, June 16.—All the crew and naval gunners of the American tank steamer Petrolite, sunk by a German submarine near Gibraltar now have been accounted for and are reported well.

ITALIANS CAPTURE POINT—Rome, via London, June 16.—Italian forces have carried Corno Caveneto, a strongly fortified Austrian position in the eastern Trentino says the official statement issued today by the Italian war department.

Mrs. Anna B. Hurst of Canton, Ill., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Sparger, 508 South Main street.

Numerous amendments to pension bills were enacted.

Validated Numerous Bonds.—Numerous road bonds and local bonds were validated by special enactment but a bill to validate the 1915 sanitary district tax was defeated in the senate after a bitter fight.

No primary election bill succeeded among the dozens that were introduced. A resolution adopted in the closing week called for an investigation into the subject of primary elections and recommendations to a future assembly as to needed changes.

Approximately 1,600 bills were introduced and of these 300 passed both houses.

Governor Lowden is expected to veto several of these as he did the measure to abolish capital punishment.

DO NOT EXPECT U. S. TROOPS BEFORE 1918

German Press is Told that American Forces Should be Treated as Negligible Owing to Transportation Difficulties

Copenhagen, June 16, via London.—Representatives of the German press were told yesterday at the regular weekly press conference in Berlin, that the arrival of American troops in noteworthy numbers in the European theatre was to be expected only in 1918. The general staff lecturer also took the ground that the American forces should be treated as a negligible quantity in the general reckoning, owing to the difficulties of finding sufficient tonnage for transportation and supplies.

The suggestion was followed in numerous articles in the newspapers yesterday and this morning. The newspaper representatives also were told that a new Russian offensive was highly improbable and that artillery and aviation activity, and reconnoitering raids indicated a new French offensive was a preparation. The British also were certain to try their fortune again but no surprises in offensive methods were expected from either the French or the British and these only varied from the earlier offensives would be a change of geographical location. Germany's situation was described as absolutely secure, and German victory, as certain owing to the relentless working of the submarine. Heavy estimates of French and British losses were supplied to furnish encouragement to the readers.

ASSERTS CONSTANTINE HAS NOT ABDICATED

PARIS, June 16.—"Constantine has not declared that he has abdicated," says the Temps. "He has simply explained that with his eldest son he is departing from the country and that he leaves the throne to his son Alexander, and the latter, in turn, has not declared that he has succeeded King Constantine, but that he is going to fulfill his sacred mandate."

"Taken literally, these two declarations do not constitute a definite change in sovereignty. They announce nothing more than a family arrangement."

"This compact between father and son is doubly void. It violates the constitution guaranteed by the protecting powers and it violates neutrality."

JAPANESE DESTROYER DAMAGED.

Tokio, June 16.—While Japanese destroyers were attacking a submarine in the Mediterranean on June 11, the destroyer Sakaki was torpedoed and damaged, says an official announcement of the Japanese admiralty today. The damaged craft was towed to port. It is believed many of the crew were killed or wounded.

ARREST TWENTY ALLEGED SLACKERS

Chicago, June 16.—Twenty alleged registration slackers were arraigned today, most of them pleading ignorance of the law and willingness to register now. Louis Grum, however, was held to the grand jury on testimony that he had not only failed to register but had urged others not to do so. He is an elevated conductor.

ELEVEN SHIPS REACH PORT

London, June 16.—The American commission for relief in Belgium announced today that since June 7, eleven of their ships, carrying an aggregate of 50,000 tons of foodstuffs, have arrived at Rotterdam and it is expected an equal number will reach the port in the next two weeks.

SINK JAPANESE STEAMER

Boston, Mass., June 16.—The Japanese steamer Tansan Maru which left Boston May 9, for Manchester, England, has been sunk by a German submarine. Cable advices to agents here today stated that Captain Nichikawa and the crew of twenty-seven, all Japanese, are believed lost.

PASS PRIORITY BILL

Washington, Bulletin.—The senate without a record vote today passed the administration priority ship bill which could prevent obstruction of interstate commerce and authorize the president to direct that shipments of commodities "essential to the prosecution of the war" be given preference in transportation. The bill now goes to the house.

AMERICANS TO BE ATTACHED TO ARMY

Buenos Aires, June 16.—The government has agreed to a number of American army officers being attached to the Argentine army with the object of studying the enrollment for military service in Argentina.

ARM BROKEN BY KICK OF AUTO.

Ellis Henderson had his right arm broken about 9 o'clock Saturday morning when a Ford car he was attempting to crank became balky and kicked back. Mr. Ellis went to Dr. A. M. King who set the fracture.

Mr. Ellis had the car standing in front of his residence Saturday morning and it looked as tho a pole was going to fall on it. He ran out to start the car and get it out of the way. In his excitement he forgot to retard the spark and it kicked back striking him on the wrist fracturing the bone. Mr. Ellis says the next time he approaches the critter he will borrow the mailed fist of the kaiser.

A LOT OF ALL WOOL SKIRTS AT A BIG BARGAIN FOR MONDAY SALE AT HERMAN'S.

BURLINGTON RAILROAD TRYING OUT FORD CARS—Aurora Beacon-News: A new system of traveling fast at small cost is being tried out by the Burlington railroad. If successful those living along the railroad will find it not an uncommon occurrence to see Ford automobiles speeding along on the rails at the rate of 40 to 50 miles an hour. They are for use of officers and workers of the road needed quickly at certain points.

Two of these machines are now under construction in the local shops of the Burlington. One was completed today and made its first trip from Aurora to Galesburg. It was run by Assistant Superintendent of the Aurora Division A. J. Carter. The other car is being finished and will be ready for the test in a few days. Mr. Carter said this morning.

The automobiles were bought from the Ford company and remodeled to answer the purpose. The original wheels have been removed and replaced with iron wheels which cling to the rails. They are geared up for high speed and will travel 50 miles an hour if it is necessary to make such speed. The auto that went to Galesburg this morning is known as No. 1028 and will be used on the Iowa division. The other machine, now being finished, is No. 140 and will be used on the Aurora division.

INTEREST UNABATED IN THE SCHRAM SALE

Big Crowds Thronged the Store
Again Saturday—Articles Purchased Very Rapidly.

Schram's jewelry auction has been in progress for three days with sales afternoon and evening. It is not too much to say that the auction has exceeded the expectations of both Mr. Schram and the sale managers. The bidders have not been confined to Jacksonville residents. Many people have come from adjacent territory, knowing that the opportunity was offered of buying absolutely dependable watches and jewelry at their own price. In order to be sure of admission scores of people have thronged the store before the time for the sales to begin, and there have been very short intermissions between the closing of the afternoon sale and the beginning of that in the evening.

It is evident that a great many of those who attend have come for the purpose of buying specific articles and they readily make known their wants. Any article pointed out is put up for sale and goes quickly to the highest bidder. Sixty so many articles are to be sold there cannot be long delays and watches, diamond rings, leather goods, pens, cut glass, silver ware, clocks, etc., are sold in a quick snappy way.

The auctioneers, Messrs. Briggs & Reid, are thoroughly experienced and waste no time. Their method of handling the crowd are sprightly and everybody is kept in a good humor. If the prices bid on some of the articles are extremely low the auctioneers and Mr. Schram seem very willing to make the best of the situation. The goods sold are taken from the cases and shelves just when they are put up at auction and as the auctioneers tell of the quality the people have the assurance that only the real facts are being made known and that the good name of the Schram store is behind every article.

The sale will continue every afternoon and evening until the entire stock has been distributed among the people of this city and vicinity. The way goods sold Thursday, Friday and Saturday, it is not going to take a long period to accomplish Mr. Schram's announced object of turning this stock quickly into cash.

LADIES' FIBER SILK SWEATERS ON SALE MON- DAY AT HERMAN'S.

MAKING 12 PER CENT

Some money does not, but some does. Some earns more than that. Bankers' money all does. Why? Because it is so used that it gives its owners the use of other people's money at less than its earning value. With about $300,000 of its own, one Jacksonville bank is lending over $3,000,000, making its own invested money earn more than 20%.

You can't start a bank with a few hundred dollars, but maybe you can do this: Let us sell you a house that is carrying a loan (using other people's money) amounting to $600. You will pay us $650 for "the equity" and get a deed to the property. The loan will cost you $42 per year; your rent brings you $120; the difference, $78 per year, is what you $650 earns and that is 12%. Your money is invested in real estate, and you own it.

We will be glad to talk with you personally about this and other investments, larger or smaller.

"The Best Place to Trade, After All"

PAID VISITS TO STATE
EXPERIMENT STATION

Soil and Crop Committees of University Made Interesting Tour.

A. C. Rice and C. A. Rowe, who are members of the crop committee of the Illinois university, have returned from a visit to experiment stations in Illinois. A part of the trip was made in connection with the soil committee of the university. The joint committee inspected first the experiment station at Champaign and then went to Odin in Marion county to look over the station there. Then the crop committee visited Fairfield and DeKalb.

Members of the crop committees who made this inspection trip were Dr. Burleson of the state university, A. A. Hill of Decatur, Mr. Rice and Mr. Rowe of this county. The committee on soils includes Dr. Hopkins of the University of Illinois, J. E. Mason, president of the state dairy-men's association; Frank I. Mann of Gilman and Ralph Allen of Delavan. They were accompanied by F. H. Rankin of the University of Illinois.

Mr. Rice said Saturday that the crops at all the stations were in excellent condition with the exception of corn, which is owing to the effect of unfavorable weather. That there is great interest in the work of the stations was indicated at Fairfield, where sixty men and one woman met the committee and went with them to the farm. Because of this general interest an informal institute was held and there was general discussion of crop and fertility problems. The joint committee also visited Dr. Hopkins' farm in Marion county. This land was purchased seven or eight years ago by Dr. Hopkins and by applying the Illinois system of agriculture the non-productive acres have been brought up to a high state of fertility. Dr. Hopkins' theory is that by the application of the proper amount of limestone and phosphate and the growing of clover and other legumes that soil fertility can be increased and maintained. He has followed this principle on his southern Illinois farm with excellent results.

Mr. Rice said that their journeys took them thru the entire state and they found an excess of rain everywhere. In fact, about the driest county in Illinois seems to be Morgan. The Jacksonville men returned Saturday and along the Wabash they saw water standing on many acres in Macon and Sangamon counties and that sight is one they had grown familiar with during the week. In southern Illinois a very large acreage intended for corn has not been planted at all, as the rainy weather has made it impossible.

Edward Wemple of Waverly spent Saturday in the city on business.

GAVE FAREWELL PARTY FOR CO. B. RECRUITS.
A farewell party was given Thursday evening at the home of Miss Ruth Bond in honor of Fred Miskel and Edward Walton, who have recently joined Co. B and for Leroy Bond, who recently returned from the company at Pearl, being still on duty. The house was handsomely decorated in spring flowers. Music and games served to pass the evening hours and the event proved a very enjoyable one for each of the guests. Light refreshments were served. Toward the close of the evening the two recruits stood in the double doorway where a large American flag had been draped and honors were shown them when the company joined in singing "Star Spangled Banner" and "God Be With You Till We Meet Again." A brief toast was made by Leroy Bond and this was happily responded to by the boys in uniform.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. McCarty, Mrs. W. A. Wesner, wife of Dr. Wesner, Misses Lucille and Margaret Short, all of Jacksonville, motored to the city Saturday and spent the day with Mrs. W. H. Mason of South Main street.

Miss Lena Ausmus of Sinclair was a city caller yesterday.

Take the "Ake"
out of Bake

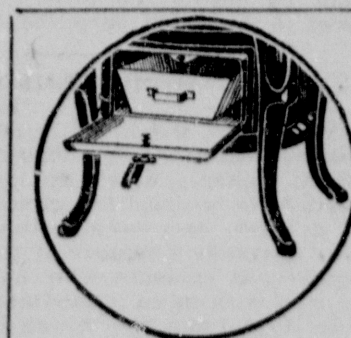

You can take the "ake" out of bake by using a modern and convenient Leonard Hi-Oven Range. No stooping required. No more backaches as all work done in an easy upright position. Compare this with the old way—the low oven way. When you stoop over to the low oven the blood rushes to your head; the heat rolls out in your face; and when you raise up it is with a "kink" in your back and that disagreeable dizzy feeling in your head. Isn't very pleasant is it?

PRINCETON'S PATRIOTIC

Princeton, N. J., June 16.—Old and orations today at the 170th commencement of Princeton University. The customary exercises of graduation were converted into a notable demonstration of patriotism.

The leading feature of the program was the conferring of honorary degrees upon all the ambassadors and ministers representing the Allied powers at Washington. There were also exhibition drills and exercises by the Princeton Battalion and the aviation corps of the university.

EARL COOPER WINS
CHICAGO AUTO RACESNATCHES A VICTORY IN THE
LAST TWENTY MILES

Ralph Mulford Finishes Second and Eddie Hearne Third—DePalma Forced Out of Running Because of a Leaky Gasoline Pipe and Engine Trouble.

Chicago, June 16.—Driving the entire distance without a stop, Earl Cooper, a veteran racer, snatched a victory in the last twenty miles of the 250 mile automobile race at Speedway Park today, winning in 2:25:28. With first place went $8,000 and a silver trophy.

Ralph Mulford, who broke the American Speedway records for 150 and 200 miles, finished second and Eddie Hearne third. Fourth place went to Cliff Durant and Walter pulled up fifth. Delph DePalma, the favorite, gave Mulford a desperate race for 200 miles, but was forced out of the running because of a leaky gasoline pipe and engine trouble.

Changing tires in the 231st mile robbed Mulford of victory. Although the track only 43 seconds, Mulford lost the lead to Cooper, who steadily increased it. Cooper's average for the race was 103 1-10 miles an hour.

Joe Thomas and his mechanic,
Henri Worth, escaped with a few minor bruises when their car, speeding at the rate of 118 miles an hour, crashed thru the fence on the back stretch. The car driven by Joe Boyer also went thru a fence on the turn, but neither Boyer nor his mechanic was injured. The machines
however, were wrecked.

The pace proved too hot for Barney Oldfield, who was forced out of the race in the forty-eighth mile because of a broken connecting rod.
Louis Chevrolet, winner of the Memorial Day race at Cincinnati, was a victim of tire and engine trouble and finished tenth. Twenty seven drivers started, but ten dropped out before the 10th mile was reached.

Student aviators at the United States aviation camp at Ashburn, a suburb, added a thrill to the race by giving exhibition flights over the course. The day was ideal for the event, a cloudless sky and warm sun bringing out a crowd estimated at 40,000. Officials of the speedway plan to donate the profits of the meet to war relief purposes.

CUTS OUT COMMENCEMENT
FRILLS.

Worcester, Mass., June 16.—The commencement week exercises at Clark College, which in previous years have occupied the greater part of a week, have been reduced this year to two days because of the large number of students who have left or who wish to go immediately into war service and also because of an effort to eliminate many of the unnecessary expenses. The bachelors' dinner will be delivered tomorrow by Dr. Langdon C. Stewardson, former president of Hobart College.
The remainder of the program will be crowded into Monday, when both the class day exercises and the graduation exercises will be held. The commencement address will be delivered by President Benjamin Ide Wheeler of the University of California.

George Dalton of Deatur was among the visitors in the city Saturday.

SKAT TOURNAMENT IN CHICAGO

Chicago, Ill., June 16.—Hundreds of devotees of the game of skat, who claim that their favorite pastime is the most scientific of all card games, arrived in Chicago today to participate in the twentieth annual congress

Cold Settled In His Back

"Foley Kidney Pills always give me prompt relief," Ed Vetter, Rogers, Neb., writes: "I have used Foley Kidney Pills for backache, the result of catching cold which settled in my back. Foley Kidney Pills always give me prompt relief and I can cheerfully recommend them."

The reason Foley Kidney Pills act so satisfactorily is because they neutralize and solve the poisonous waste matter that remains in the blood because the kidneys do not do their work properly in filtering and casting out from the system the acid and other poisons.

Relief usually follows in a few days and such symptoms as pain in the sides or back, stiff joints, sore muscles, rheumatism, too frequent action of the bladder at night, and other painful and annoying ailments disappear. Foley Kidney Pills contain no harmful ingredients. They are safe as well as quick acting.

THIS MEDICINE WOMEN VALUE

Positively Relieves the Suffering.

More Convincing Proof.

When Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was first introduced its curative powers were doubted and had to be proved. But the proof came, and gradually the use of it spread over the whole country. Now that hundreds of thousands of women have experienced the most beneficial effects from its use its value has become generally recognized and it is now the standard medicine for women's ills.

The following letter is only one of the thousands on our files.

Dennison, Texas. — "I cannot feel that I have done my duty until I tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered from female troubles so I could hardly drag around and do my work. I was very nervous, and had dizzy spells, heat flashes, and headaches until life was a burden. My husband brought me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I soon began to improve. I continued its use and am now free from all pains and aches that made life a burden. You may use this letter in any way you like for I want the world to know what a grand medicine Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is."

Misery in Back, Headache and Pain in Limbs.

Dear Mr. Editor—For more than a year I suffered with misery in the back, dull headache, pain in the limbs, was somewhat constipated and slept poorly at night until I was about ready to collapse. Seeing an account of the wonderful qualities of "Anuric," prepared by Doctor Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., I sent for a box, and before using the whole box I felt and still feel improved. My sleep is refreshing, misery reduced, and life is not the drag it was before. I most cheerfully recommend this remedy to sufferers from like ailments.

Yours truly, W. A. ROBERTS.

NOTE: You've all undoubtedly heard of the famous Dr. Pierce and his well-known medicines. Well, this prescription is one that has been successfully used for many years by the physicians and specialists of Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y., for kidney complaints, and diseases arising from disorders of the kidneys and bladder, such as backache, weak back, rheumatism, dropsy, congestion of the kidneys, inflammation of the bladder, scalding urine, and urinary troubles.

Up to this time, "Anuric" has not been on sale to the public, but by the persuasion of many patients and the increased demand for this wonderful healing Tablet, Dr. Pierce has finally decided to put it into the drug stores of this country within immediate reach of all sufferers.

I know of one or two leading druggists in town who have managed to procure a supply of "Anuric" for their anxious customers in and around this locality. If not obtainable send one dime by mail to Dr. Pierce for trial package or 50 cents for full treatment.

EDITOR—Please insert this letter in some conspicuous place in your paper.

MEN OF COMPANY B ENJOYED BIG FEAST

Women of Pearl Prepared Dinner in Their Honor—Nothing Overlooked in Preparations for the Event—Soldiers Were Appreciative

Patriotic women of Pearl served a dinner recently at the barracks of Co. B in honor of the soldiers. From time to time members of the company have been invited to dine at the homes of residents there but the women decided that a dinner should be given which would include all of the company. It proved to be a very enjoyable occasion and the women certainly forgot nothing in their preparations. The bill of fare included every good thing that is in season.

A friend of one of the soldiers has received a clipping from a Pearl paper giving some of the facts about this "big feed."

"Early in the forenoon preparations began and as forenoon grew older, energies increased until the barracks were loaded with well filled baskets and the long table was set, decorated and loaded with the 'fat of the land' the women thought that the best to be obtained was none too good for the boys who had left their homes, families and friends and had joined that grand body of noble men who are going out to defend our homes and our liberties against Prussianism and so it was no half-hearted affair, but an event into which our women put their hearts and their energies and the result was marvelous for seldom has it ever been our privilege to see such a spread of 'every thing good' as we had there on this memorable occasion."

Those Laden Tables

"The table decorations were beautiful within themselves and when it came to the substantial part of the dinner, it beggars description, and so we will not attempt description, we will pass it up by repeating a remark that one of the soldier boys made when dinner was over. He said 'I did not know there was so much to eat within the whole town.' When dinner was ready, Lieut. Hale ordered Sargent Capps to form the soldiers in line and march them in."

"The guests were then seated and this was once that the Guards faced a condition that it was not necessary for the Lieutenant to order a 'Charge.'"

"All partook of the dinner with an appreciation that was gratifying indeed to the many hands that had so willingly assisted in its preparation."

"During this skirmish the soldiers were constantly bombarded from fear and flank by waitresses and rallied to the attack with much zeal."

"Sergeant Capps was first to surrender. He fought a long, hard fight but constant pressure was too much for him and he ran up the white flag (his handkerchief) and was 'counted out.'"

"The battle went merrily on with first one and then another capitulating to the many waitresses. Finally when the Lieutenant surrendered it was almost over, altho Corporal Nelson held the south-west corner of the field firm as 'Stonewall Jackson' but finally this seasoned veteran had to capitulate and the field was won."

"It seemed that the ones who had the arrangement of the affair must have been afraid of Lieutenant Hale's ability to exercise restraint as they placed a physician on each side of him, but he got thru alright without any professional advice."

Expressed Thanks

"When all were thru, Lieutenant Hale ordered the soldiers to arise and in a few well chosen words thanked the ladies for the spirit shown in conceiving the idea of a dinner in their honor and also for the dinner itself which he pronounced 'very fine.'"

"The soldier boys then tendered a vote of thanks to the ladies for the honor and the dinner. Lieutenant Hale then ordered Sargent Capps to dismiss the soldiers, which was done in a very capable manner."

"After retiring the soldiers gave three cheers to show in their own way their appreciation."

"It was an event that they said would recur to them as one of the bright days of their soldier life and would be kindly held in memory for 'Many Moons.'"

"There was plenty left for them for several meals later. Everybody felt better and now are more glad and get more pleasure out of life for having done this act of appreciation and respect."

"Our two very genial hospital men, Drosty and Dort were forced to be absent because of having to go to Louisiana on that day and administer anti-typhoid serum to 75 of the company over there."

"Long may the spirit of democracy and freedom rule supreme in the hearts of men."

Miss Ella Handy of Mattoon was in the city Saturday on her way to Bluffs where she will be the guest of relatives for a few days.

Mrs. Forrest W. Harris and her son, E. B. Davis, have been called from the city on account of the illness of an aged aunt. Mr. Harris will join them a little later.

ENGINE DERAILED NEAR WHITE HALL FRIDAY

Traffic on Burlington Blocked for Two Hours by Accident—Second Derailment at Same Point Within Week—Russian Flag Displayed in Business Section—Greene County Notes

White Hall, June 16.—The derailment of engine 2085 on the Burlington, pulling an extra freight, south bound, occurred at the interlocking plant north of White Hall at 7:20 a. m. Friday, blocking traffic for two hours. A. C. & A. freight train was standing on the crossing at the time, and the C. & A. engine ran around to the rear of the derailed engine and pulled it back onto the track. This is the second derailment at this point within a week. Last Saturday, the 9th inst., a south-bound extra on the Burlington was derailed at this point at 6:30 a. m. The engine remained on the ties, but the tender rolled into the ditch at the side of the track, and a car of hogs, a car of farm implements and a car of lumber were piled together in all shapes, an empty oil tank being thrown in for good measure. This derailment blocked traffic until noon, when a temporary track was completed around the wreckage. The wrecking crew did not complete the work of clearing this wreckage until 4:30 p. m. Sunday.

One White Hall boy witnessed Ruth Law alight near Lexington, Illinois, Thursday evening to replenish her gasoline supply. This is Lyman Prindle, who is express messenger on C. & A. trains 70 and 71, running between Chicago and Roodhouse, laying over at Roodhouse every other night. He was on a trip toward Roodhouse Thursday evening when he witnessed the landing of the famous aeronaut.

A huge Russian flag decorates the business section of White Hall, and on it are the words in large lettering "The Republic of Russia." M. Cohn, a local tailor and a native of Russia, designed and constructed the flag as an expression of his solicitude for his native country, and the flag attracts attention of all passers. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Singleton and daughter, Miss Dorothy, arrived home Thursday from an extended sojourn for their health, and were greatly benefited.

R. S. Hobson came up from Hillview Friday evening to meet his cousin, Mrs. Nettie Polham and family, from Hayti, Mo., who will spend some time at the Hobson home in Hillview.

Major General Pershing is a fighter, not a speaker. The Germans will soon find this out when he gets into action on the western front.

Those Liberty bonds undoubtedly are good but they don't look half so good to the average citizen as would $50 worth of coal stored in the bin.

Representative Kirby would make a bigger hit with the women if he would advocate the passage of a law giving them full franchise rights in the state than he would in trying to pass a law regulating their wearing apparel.

What does a mere man know about women's clothing anyway?

One From Associated Press. Chicago, June 16.—Gust. J. Papathodorokoumoudurgistonmichalakopulos bought a liberty bond here.

Ordinarily straw hats do not go with overcoats but the past week it was no uncommon thing to see some man with his head encased in a straw hat and his body in a heavy overcoat. It usually was some traveling salesman who got caught away from home by the cold wave.

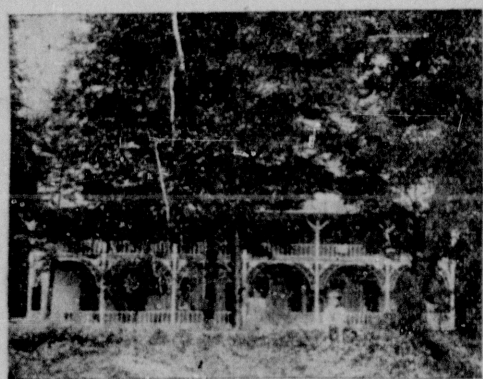

A month of balmy breezes. You used to be dear June. But this year you are twisted. And sadly out of tune.

What is the use of so much agitation in the papers about economy in the use of food staples? The present high prices are compelling economy of the most rigid sort in nearly every home in the country.

How they are going to get the pagoda out of the park is troubling us almost as much as it is other people as to how they are going to get the material for the soldier's monument into the park.

The Illinois legislature lopped two millions off of the good roads appropriation. They probably are figuring on raising their own salaries.

Relations between the Phi Alpha and Sigma Pi forces of the Journal have been rather strained the past week, the war was not actually declared.

We Wasn't Thirsty Long

After Meeting Warren Geo. W. Davis called us blood-thirsty in his column in the Sunday Jacksonville Journal because we said we'd like to see our idea of a fitting punishment meted out to the fellows who are charging two prices for coal. If he'd paid our fuel bill he'd have wanted a ring-side seat. We have met up with George on several occasions when he was decidedly thirsty and it wasn't for blood, either, but we never said anything about it and aren't going to now for as Shakespeare or some other literary celebrity of the past once wrote, "With all his faults, we love him still."—Warren Lattrell, in Franklin Times.

A Phi Alpha meeting without S. W. Nichols or a Sigma Pi meeting without Ensley Moore would be like strawberry shortcake without the strawberries.

L. C. STUDENTS IN MARINE SERVICE.

Information reached Jacksonville Saturday to the effect that Julian Frisbie and Hansel Wilson, Illinois college former athletes, have enlisted in the U. S. marine service. It was known that the men had intended to enlist soon after commencement exercises here, and therefore the news of their action was not unexpected.

Wilson received his degree from Illinois college last week, and Frisbie would have been graduated at the same time but for the fact that he left college in the middle of the term to go to work. Frisbie was a star football and basketball man and Wilson was also a well known football and basketball star.

IN MEMORY

A paper read at the Ladies' Aid Memorial service, Murrayville, Ill., June 7, 1917, by Mrs. H. B. Daniel. (Published by request.)
"There is no flock, however watched or tended,
But one dead lamb is there.
There is no fireside, howsoever defended,
But has one vacant chair."

Beloved, in the years of your useful journey, the blessed tie that binds our hearts in Christian love, has been snapped again and again, and not only one vacant chair is in our circle, but fourteen dear, helpful comrades, have laid aside the sickle, and left the golden harvest to your care.

"I cannot say, I will not say,
That they are dead. They are just away."

With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
They have wandered into an unknown land.

And left us dreaming, how very fair it needs must be, since they linger there.

And you, Oh! you who the wildest yearn
For the old time step, and the glad return—

Think of them, faring on as dear
In love of them, as the love of here.
Think of them still the same, I say,
They are not dead, they are just away."

When I was asked to give a tribute to the beloved comrades "who are away," I thought, how can I, when I do not know them? But when the list was sent to me, I find that I personally knew and loved them all, except four; and they, like the saints of the Scripture "their works do follow them" so closely that I cannot realize that I never saw their dear faces.

First on the list, is Mrs. Lennie Smith, the mother and organizer of this splendid society, and I feel that she would ask no finer tribute to her memory than your loyal service thru all these years. You certainly have been splendid daughters, of a splendid mother; and as you "rise up, and call her blessed," you are laying a wreath of immortelles on her vacant chair, more precious than a queen's diadem.

Bee Lightfoot has always been spoken of with such an "ever present" suggestion, that I never dreamed that she was not on the earth, side, until I saw her name in the list of those who are gone away. But she still lives in your hearts.

The loyal daughters of Mrs. Clara Wade have kept her beloved name so constantly with you and her work still is so manifest, that we may truly say, "she is not dead, but just away."

The very physical helplessness of Mrs. Clara McAllister, made her a blessing. She aroused our tenderness and sympathy, which made us better women, and we more keenly appreciated her lovely spiritual nature.

Mrs. Jane Brisendine was another dear comrade, who gave of her best, and reminded us, that, "not to the strong, is the battle, not to the swift is the race."

Somewhat, Mrs. Carter and Mrs. Brewbaker, have always been associated together, in my mind. They were so gentle in spirit, yet so powerful in influence—always loyal, always ready, always willing. Indeed, their gentle spirits abide with us to-day, as the essence of sweet flowers.

Long years ago Mrs. Elizabeth Israel was one of your beacon lights, and even yet, as at holy eventide, the glow of her life dissipates the darkness.

Mrs. Linnie Worrall was another whose very weakness gave us strength.

"Aunt Nancy Rimby," "Aunt Evelyn Hughes," and "Aunt Maria Osborne," have woven into this society thru their benign presence, and prayers, a golden cord that does not break. They always gave us "the finest of the wheat" for they had free access to the garner house of the King of Kings.

Out where the flowers bloom for aye and aye lies the mortal part of Mrs. Emma Rimby; but, not even the roses of the Westland are sweeter than the memories of loving deeds, that twine around her resting place in our hearts.

And Mary Rea! What can we say of her? No alabaster jars of richest ointment, broken over the bruised bodies of weary toilers, have brought sweeter comfort, and strength, and refreshing, than her prayers have brought to erring men, and lonely hearts.

May we, as we pass on, and leave our vacant chair, leave as beautiful records of deeds well done, as have these, our beloved dead. And lest we forget, and do not give of our best, each day, I leave with you these words from Nora Perry:

Too Late

What silences we keep, year after year.

With those who are most near to us and dear!

We live beside each other day by day,

And speak of myriad things, but seldom say

The full, sweet word that lies just in our reach

Beneath the commonplace of common speech.

Then out of sight and out of reach they go—

Those close, familiar friends who loved us so;

And, sitting in the shadow they have left,

Alone with loneliness and sore bereft,

We think with vain regret of some fond word,

That once we might have said and they have heard.

For weak and poor the love that we express

Now seems beside the vast, sweet unexpressed,

And slight the deeds we did to those undone,

And small the service spent in treasures won.

And undeserved the praise for word and deed,
That should have overflowed the simple need.

This is the cruel cross of life, to be full-voiced only when the ministry of death has been fulfilled, and in the place
Of some dear presence is but empty space.
What recollected service e'er can then Give consolation for the might have been?

So,
"If you have a tender message,
Or a loving word to say,
Don't wait until you forget it,
But whisper it today.
Who knows what bitter memories
May haunt you if you wait?
So, make your loved ones happy,
Before it is too late."

NOTABLE BIRTHDAYS TODAY

June 17

Prince Danilo Alexander of Montenegro, heir to the throne of the tiny kingdom, is 46 years old today. Should Montenegro recover its independence on the ante-war basis, which is doubtful, Prince Danilo will succeed the present ruler, the aged King Nicholas. He is the third of the King's nine children, of whom another is the Queen of Italy, who was Princess Helena of Montenegro before her marriage. The supreme power has been in the hands of the family since 1697, when Danilo Petrovich, its chief, liberated the country from the Turks. They assumed the title of King only in 1910, with Nicholas, and Danilo, if he reigns, will be the second King of Montenegro. All are now living in exile in France, and Prince Danilo is a member of the French General Staff. It is rumored that if he ever rules, it will certainly not be as the patriarch of a shepherd people, as his father has done, as he is a quite different type of prince and with him the simplicity of the old Black Mountain princes will pass into the realm of legend. He is a polished cosmopolitan, speaking with ease half a dozen languages, an enthusiastic motorist and tennis player, and has been a conspicuous figure at all the courts and in the most fashionable salons of Western Europe. He married, in 1899, the Princess Jutta of Mecklenburg-Strelitz, a German Princess. Mrs. William Jennings Bryan, 56 years old today.

Marshall Field IV., great-grandson of the Chicago magnate and heir to fabulous wealth, whose father, Marshall Field III, recently died, is 46 years old today.

Robert J. Collier, editor and publisher of Collier's Weekly, 41 years old today.

J. Wilbur Chapman, famous evangelist and first teacher of Billy Sunday, 58 years old today.

Dr. Harvey D. Hoover, president of Carthage College, Ill., 37 years old today.

Congressman Henry Bruckner of New York, chairman of the House committee on railroads and canals, 46 years old today.

FIRST THOUGHT IS OF WIFE'S WELFARE

After Gaining Remarkable
Relief, Hitchens Advises
Helpmate to Try Tanlac

J. S. Hitchens, well known blacksmith of Litchberry, Ill., near here, has tried Tanlac, and is so firmly convinced of the new medicine's merits that he has advised his wife to begin its use at once.

"I have had stomach and kidney trouble for several years," Mr. Hitchens said on May 26, in explaining his recent case to the Tanlac Man. "Gas formations and bloating and a very uncomfortable feeling invariably followed my meals. My kidneys were weak and irregular."

"The statements in Jacksonville newspapers given by some of my friends finally led me to try Tanlac. I certainly feel greatly improved since taking two bottles of the medicine. Yes sir, I'm better in every way now. I'm not bothered so much with the gas formations and bloating after meals now and my kidneys are in much better shape. I'm going to have my wife take Tanlac for her nervousness. I feel sure it will benefit her."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of appetite and the like.

Tanlac is now being introduced in Jacksonville at the Coover-Shreve Drug Co., East Side store, where a special Tanlac representative is explaining the new medicine to the public daily. Tanlac also may be obtained at the West Side store of the Coover-Shreve Drug Co. It is sold in Waverly at the Wyle Drug Co.; in New Berlin at the New Berlin Drug Co.; in Ashland at H. O. Brownback's; in Versailles at A. G. Bates'; in Chapin at F. P. McKinney's; in Roodhouse at W. D. Berry's and in White Hall at the City Drug store.

HAWAII FACES SERIOUS FOOD SITUATION

Said to be less than a week's supply on hand—Restrictions Imposed by Censorship Complicate Situation—Prices Show Great Advance.

Honolulu, H. I., June 16.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—War has brought upon Hawaii what is pronounced by federal, territorial and business authorities as a serious situation as regards the food supply. Fears are openly expressed that in the event of the appearance of a hostile raider in the Pacific, or any other occurrence that might shut off or curtail trans-Pacific traffic, the islands would be in a bad way for food, as there is, it is stated, less than a week's supply on hand. Governor L. E. Pinkham has issued a proclamation in which he called attention to the serious food situation that, he says, confronts Hawaii and urges land owners and others immediately to increase the resources of the territory.

The situation is greatly complicated by the restrictions imposed by the censorship. All use of wireless is prohibited by the military and naval authorities. This hampers the movements of the fleet of steamships which bring produce to Honolulu from the other islands of the group.

There is a disposition on the part of a certain element of the community to collect and hoard supplies. Warnings have been issued unofficially by the authorities against this practice, but thus far without evident result.

Prices of the most necessary commodities, such as flour, rice, potatoes and onions have advanced greatly.

GERMAN MINISTER ISSUES FAREWELL MESSAGE.

Peking, June 16.—Before leaving Peking with the German legation staff, the German minister, Admiral von Hintze, issued a farewell message to the Germans in China which has been widely commented upon by both Chinese and foreign newspapers.

Admiral von Hintze came to the Orient shortly after the beginning of the war on a Norwegian ship unheralded and unannounced. After his arrival in Peking, he made himself known to the foreign office and the story of his trip to China became known. He was German minister to Mexico previous to assuming his post in China. In his farewell message he said:

"May the Almighty God, on whose altar we place the laurels of our victories, and from whose bosom we create new strength and perseverance, take all the Germans in China under his protection."

Baron Maltzen, the councillor of the German legation, his wife, Baroness Maltzen, M. Krebs, the Chinese Secretary of the legation, and his wife and daughters are accompanying the minister. Only minor members of the legation staff are permitted to remain to assist the Dutch minister in handling German affairs.

ENGLISH AIR PILOT KILLED.

London, June 16.—Lieutenant S. F. Cody, who has just been killed at the front in France, was the eldest son of the late S. F. Cody, the American aviator who achieved a great reputation in England prior to the war, and died a few months before the war began, after winning the first prize in the great military aeroplane competition. The son became a British subject at the beginning of the war, and was employed in the Royal Aircraft Factory. He inherited his father's talents as an inventor, but preferred flying to designing and soon went to the front as a pilot.

INCREASED OFFERINGS LOWER WHEAT PRICE

Finish is Unsettled at One Half to 1 1/2 Cents Net Decline—Corn Holders Reel in Last Half Hour.

Chicago, June 16.—Increased offerings of wheat from Texas had a bearish influence today on prices. During the most of the session the market ruled lower and the finish was unsettled at half to 1 1/2 net decline, with July $2.23 1/2 and Sept. $1.95 1/2. Corn closed unchanged to 1c higher, oats a shade off to 5c up and provisions at an advance of 10 to 25c.

Downturn in the wheat market began right at the outset. One of the chief reasons was a current estimate that about 60,000,000 bushels still remained in the United States for export before July 1 and for carrying over into the new crop year, not counting bread and seed requirements.

Corn rose sharply as a result of active commission house demand based largely on the assumption that the stock of corn obtainable for immediate delivery was about exhausted. Expected warmer weather during next week led however, to much lessening of bids.

Provisions remained favorable but sellers were scarce. The provision market for a time, but a decided rally took place the result of profit-taking by shorts.

STEFANSSON NOW ONLY EXPLORER IN ARCTIC

Party Now Believed to Be Attempting to Make the Northeast Passage from the Pacific to the Atlantic—Several of the Men Have Died from Exposure, Suicide and Disease.

Seattle, Wash. June 16.—The arrival in Greenland of the McMillan expedition, which left New York in July, 1913, to explore Crocker land, and which reported that this supposed continent, whose mountain tops Rear Admiral Robert E. Peary believed he had seen in 1906, did not exist, leaves Vilhalmur Stefansson, at the head of the Canadian expedition, the only explorer in the Arctic seas. It is believed that Stefansson and his twenty-four white men and nineteen Eskimos already are or soon will be heading eastward from Melville Island on board the motor vessel Polar Bear in an attempt to make the Northeast Passage from the Pacific to the Atlantic ocean.

Stefansson and his expedition left Victoria, B. C., June 17, 1913, just four years ago, in the steam whaler Karluk. At Nome, Alaska, the expedition was divided into northern and southern parties. Stefansson, on the Karluk, taking command of the former, which was to seek new land north of the mouth of Mackenzie river, and Dr. Rudolph M. Anderson, with two smaller vessels, proceeding toward the Coronation Gulf country, east of the Mackenzie delta, to make a geological, botanical and biological survey of the country, beside charting channels and studying the Eskimos, some of whom are blue-eyed, it is supposed, from an admixture of blood from the lost Scandinavian colony of Greenland.

Karluk Crushed by Ice

The Karluk stopped at Point Barrow, the most northerly point of Alaska, early in September, 1913, and was at once clutched by the ice. On September 10 the ship was apparently frozen in for the winter, and Stefansson, accompanied by two white men and two Eskimos, went ashore to hunt caribou for winter meat. While he was absent a violent storm arose and blew the Karluk out to sea. The Karluk was soon afterward again gripped by the ice, and carried westward, being finally crushed by the ice January 16, 1914, east of Wrangell Island, which is north of Siberia. The men took to the ice, but became separated, and several were never seen again. The others, under Capt. Robert A. Bartlett, reached Wrangell Island and eight men were rescued in September, 1914, by a vessel sent to the island for the purpose. Captain Bartlett, having made his way over the ice to Siberia and Nome with news of the disaster.

Meanwhile Stefansson and his associates moved eastward along the shore of the Arctic and fell in with the Anderson party in winter quarters at Martin Point, west of the mouth of the Mackenzie river.

Abundance of Food

Stefansson and two companions set out in March, 1914, over the ice with dogs and made their way due north, discovering a large island or continent northwest of Prince Patrick Island and making a safe return to Banks Island. Stefansson passed the summers of 1915 and 1916 in exploring this new land, having established communication in 1915 with the Anderson party thru the now-voyaged Polar Bear, which had gone to Banks land with supplies. Stefansson purchased the Polar Bear, and has since made it his headquarters. Most of the crew of the Polar Bear remained with him. He has an abundance of food, and a large stock of gasoline.

Dr. Anderson, who returned from the Arctic in 1916, brought news that Stefansson purposed to pass the winter of 1916-17 at Winter Harbor, Melville Island. It was his purpose, as soon as the ice broke, to head eastward with the Polar Bear in an effort to accomplish the northeast passage and end his adventures with an ascent of the St. Lawrence river to Montreal. Stefansson at last accounts had a large number of dogs and was in the best of health.

In a letter to Rear Admiral Peary, dated Cape Kellett, Banks Island, January 11, 1916, Stefansson said: "Should you not hear from us by November, 1917, it is to be presumed that something beyond our control has delayed us. I am of the opinion that in the spring of 1918 a ship or ships should be sent north from the Atlantic to look for us if we have not been heard from then." In this letter Stefansson expressed hope of co-operating with the McMillan party in demonstrating the existence or non-existence of Crocker Land.

Fourteen men of the Canadian expedition have died from exposure, suicide and disease, twelve having perished on the ice and on Wrangell Island after the wreck of the Karluk.

BIRTHDAY OF FAMOUS

SCIENTIST. London, June 16.—England's "grand old man of science," Sir William Crookes, to whom the country owes an incalculable debt for its industrial independence, will reach his eighty-fifth birthday tomorrow, and the scientific societies and other bodies are preparing for a suitable observance of the anniversary.

Sir William's star first appeared above the horizon as far back as 1861, when he was enabled to announce the discovery of Thallium, a new element. In the domain of pure science he has also added much to our knowledge of X and other rays. His name will ever be associated with the Crookes "tube" that formed the basis of Roentgen's discovery. "Applied" science is also in Sir William's debt, for he has added greatly to our knowledge of dyeing and calico-printing, artificial manures, and the disposal of sewage. Further than this, he is one of the great champions of Spiritualism. But while the scientific world has placed the highest value on his experiments and discoveries in other lines, it has paid little attention to the results he has obtained in his work on the occult side of nature.

Sir William was born in London and received his education at the Royal College of Chemistry. At 22 he was appointed superintendent of the Radcliffe Observatory at Oxford. He was knighted in 1897. He is a former president of the Royal Society and has been showered with honors by scientific societies and institutions in all parts of the world.

FLAG RAISED AT CITY HALL.

Flag raising ceremonies were held at the city hall Saturday morning when the new flag was raised on the tower. Fire Chief Hunt was made official custodian of the flag and appointed as assistants Earl Butcher and Henry Orthip, both ex U. S. sailors.

The flag at the city hall will be raised and lowered in strict accordance with army regulations. It will be run up at 7 o'clock in the morning and lowered at 5 o'clock in the evening. It will not be left out when it is raining.

Chief Hunt, himself an old military man, said yesterday that it was customary to have a storm flag for bad weather, which meant a flag that had been used. However, as the city has no substitute the new flag will be hauled down in inclement weather.

John A. Moss of Joy Prairie was a caller on city friends yesterday.

MONUMENT ASSOCIATION MET WITH ARTIST

Frederick C. Hibbard of Chicago a Visitor in Jacksonville Saturday.

The Morgan County monument association held a very pleasant and profitable meeting at the court house yesterday morning with a good attendance. The principal feature of the meeting was the presence of a noted artist, Frederick C. Hibbard, of Chicago. The gentleman had with him a lot of photographs of monuments he has designed and they were extremely interesting and showed him to be a man of no ordinary ability. He gave the association a lot of excellent advice and counsel and enabled it to act far more intelligently than would otherwise have been the case.

He designed a statue of Mark Twain which is on a bluff at Hannibal, overlooking many of the places haunted by the gifted writer when a boy; a Confederate monument at the battlefield of Shiloh is a remarkable piece of work. There is a wall of granite surmounted by a frieze of marble and on the latter in bas relief are two groups of figures, one representing advance and one retreat. Three separate groups are in keeping with the rest and are fine. At Princeton he designed a soldiers' monument; he prepared the eagle which surmounts the Illinois monument at Vicksburg; a full life size equestrian statue of Gen. Grant; a Confederate monument at Winchester, Virginia; a group, Tom Sawyer and Huck Finn for Hannibal; a fine statue of Carter Harrison; a unique statue of an alderman for a Kansas City park; Col. Doniphan of Richmond, Mo.; thirty figures of soldiers for different places.

He succeeds most admirably in preserving the likeness of his subjects and his designs of poetical figures are excellent. The visit of the gentleman was of great value to the association.

Qualities Which Win Your Admiration!

THE qualities which win your admiration for the great ocean liner—its beauty of line, its speed and power, its comfort—are the qualities for which the LEXINGTON Minute Man Six has become conspicuous.

Lexington
MINUTE MAN SIX
$1285

Both the ocean greyhound and the LEXINGTON Minute Man Six are, after all, made possible by their engines. In one the ingenious turbine has increased power and efficiency without proportionate increase of boiler space and weight—in the other a similar result has been attained by the Moore Multiple Exhaust System, one of the most important advances in gasoline engine design.

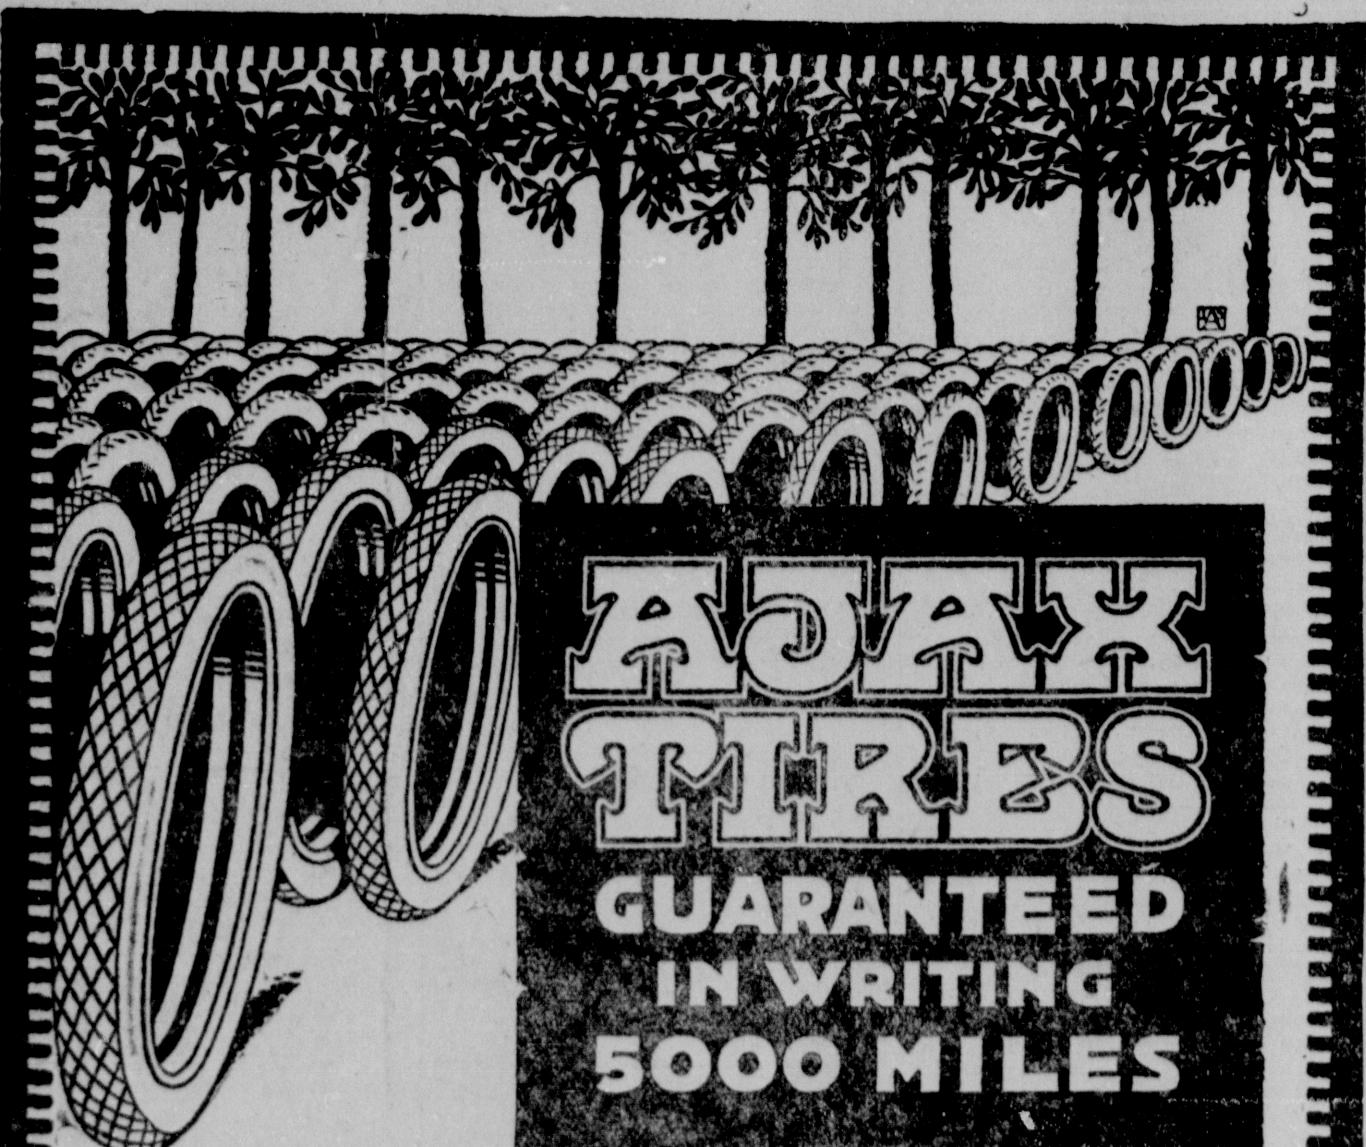

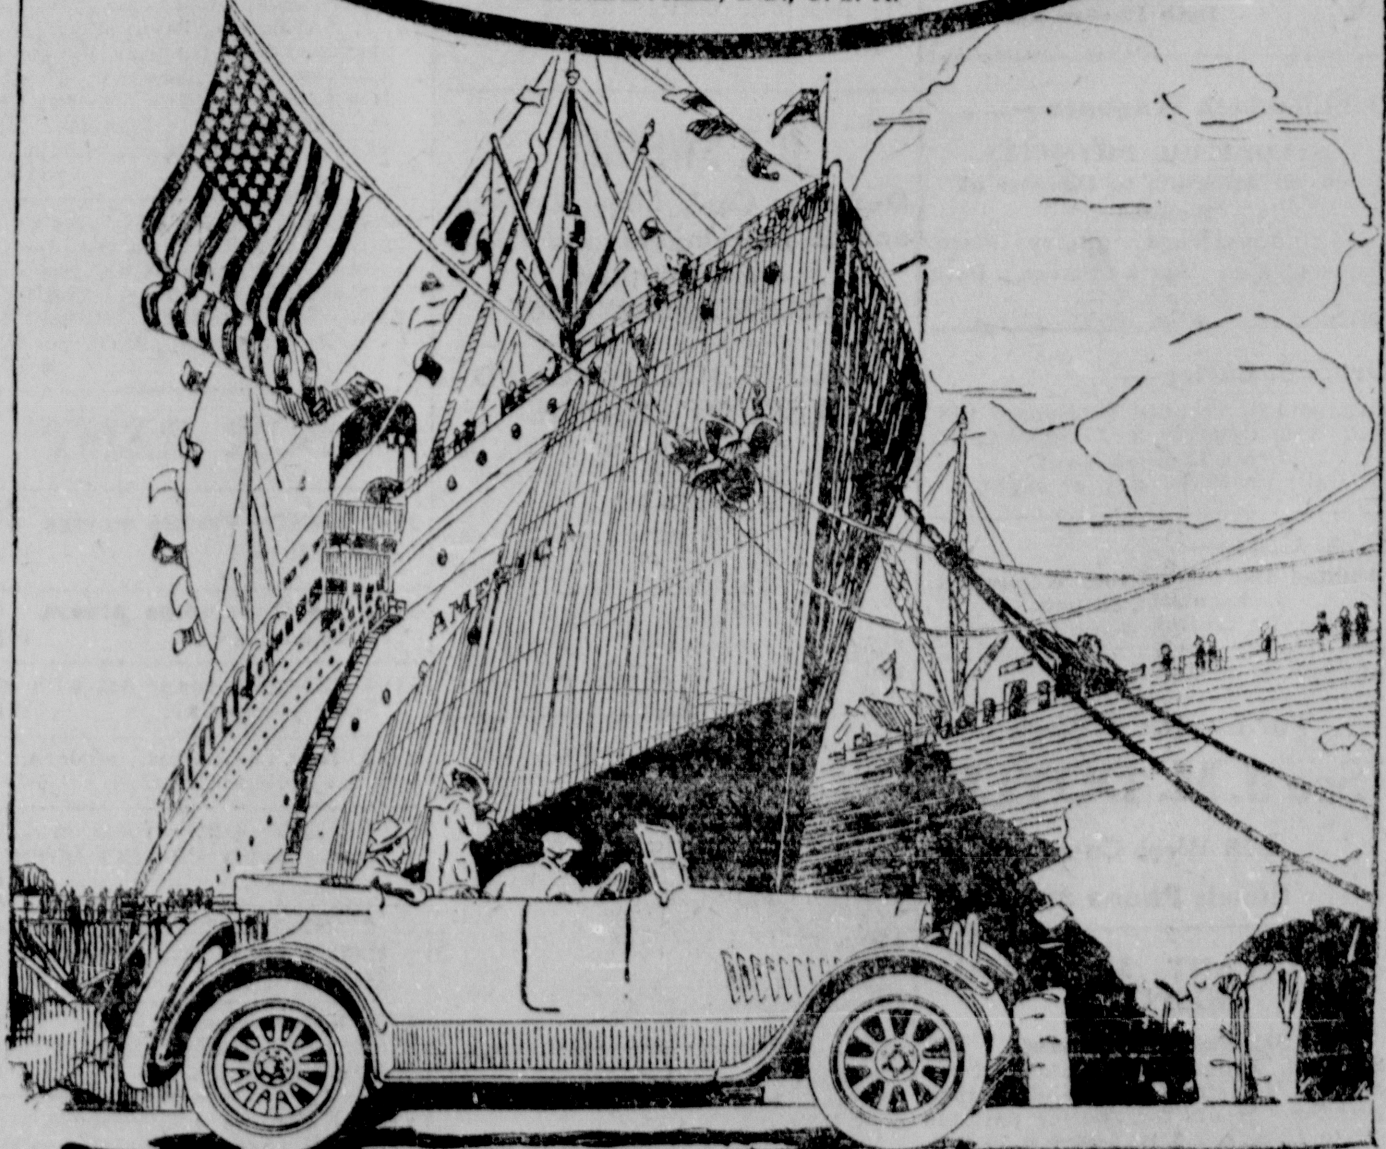

Only LEXINGTON can give you the advantages of the Moore Multiple Exhaust System. 22.8% more usable power with less gasoline, increased power at relatively low engine speeds, which means lessened vibration and wear and tear on engine and car, reduced carbon and ignition troubles—and much greater flexibility with less gear changing.

LEXINGTON Minute Man Six style and efficiency mark both the five-passenger Touring Car and the four-passenger Clubster—and you may choose between these two beautiful cars at the same price—$1285.
